SALISBURY.

Dublin-Castle, January 15, 1800.

THIS Day His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a Message from His Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend His Excellency in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Excellency made the following Speech:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have received His Majesty's Commands to assemble you in Parliament.

Upon a Review of the important and glorious Events that have distinguished the Period which has elapsed since I last addressed you, the most gratifying and encouraging Reflections present themselves to our Consideration.

By the brilliant Course of Victories, achieved by the Combined Imperial Armies, the various Kingdoms and States of Italy have been delivered from the Ravages and the Tyranny of the French.

The Throne of Naples, and our friendly Connection with that Kingdom have been restored.

The French Expedition to Egypt has been checked in its Career by the Exertions of the Turkish Arms, assisted by a small Detachment of His Majesty's Forces, and the Gallantry of their heroic Commander.

The hostile Plans of the common Enemy in India have terminated in the total Destruction of the Power which had been misled by their Artifices; and, through the timely, vigorous, and decisive Counsels of the Marquis Wellesley, and the consummate Skill and Valour of His Majesty's Generals, Officers, and Troops, the British Possessions in that Quarter of the Globe have been beneficially extended and effectually secured.

By the Descent of His Majesty's Forces and of his Russian Allies on the Coast of Holland, the Dutch Fleet has been happily rescued from the Power of the Enemy; and although the Season, peculiarly unfavorable to Military Operations, produced the Necessity of relinquishing an Enterprise so fortunately began, and prevented the complete Accomplishment of His Majesty's Views, yet the Result of that Expedition has been peculiarly beneficial to this Kingdom, in removing all Fear of Attack on our Coasts from a Quarter whence it had been so often planned, and in enabling His Majesty's Fleet to direct their Vigilance exclusively to the single Port from whence the Enemy can attack this Country with any Hope even of a temporary Success.

My utmost Care has been exerted to carry into Execution the extraordinary Powers which you have committed to my Discretion with Vigour, and at the same Time with Moderation. All Tendency to Insurrection has been effectually repressed; but it gives me true Concern to acquaint you, that the painful Necessity of acting with Severity has been too frequently imposed upon me; and although public Tranquillity has been in a great Measure restored, yet I have to lament that a Disposition to Outrage and Conspiracy still continues in several Districts; that much Industry is used to keep alive the Spirit of Disaffection, and to encourage among the lower Classes the Hopes of French Assistance.

I trust that the recent Revolution in France cannot fail to open the Eyes of such of His Majesty's Subjects as have been deluded by the Artifices which have been unremittingly employed to withdraw them from their Allegiance; and that it will restore and increase the Love of Constitutional Order and of regulated Freedom, by demonstrating that the Principles of false Liberty tend ultimately to Despotism, and that the criminal Struggles of democratic Factions naturally close in Military Usurpation.

So long as the French Government, under whatever Form it exerts its Influence, shall persevere in the Schemes of Destruction and Projects of Ambition, subversive at once of the Liberties of Europe and the Security of His Majesty's Dominions, there can be no wise Alternative but to prosecute the War with increasing Energy. It is by great Exertions alone that either their Views of Aggrandisement can be frustrated, or a solid Peace procured. His Majesty has therefore availed himself, with peculiar Satisfaction, of the cordial and great Assistance which has been afforded him by his faithful Ally the Emperor of Russia, and has thought right to make every Exertion for augmenting the disposeable Military Force of his own Dominions: His Majesty, therefore, has been highly gratified in accepting the Services so generally offered by the English Militia; and I am to express to you the entire Confidence which His Majesty feels, that the Zeal and Loyalty of his Militia of this Kingdom, in forwarding, at this important Crisis, the active Operations of the Empire, will not be less prompt and conspicuous.

The Apprehension of General Scarcity, which some Time since took place, called for my early Attention to that most important Subject; and I was induced, with the Advice of the Council, to offer Premiums for the early Importation of Grain. This Measure will, I flatter myself, meet your Approbation; and I have full Confidence in your Wislom, if it ſhall be neceſſary to reſort to any further extraordinary Means for procuring a Supply.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

The evident Neceſſity of ſecuring this Kingdom from every Danger, whether Foreign or Domeſtic, and of rendering the Succeſs of Invaſion, if attempted, impracticable, will demonſtrate to you the Wiſdom of continuing that enlarged Syſtem of Defence you have ſo wiſely adopted.

I have, therefore, ordered the Public Accounts and Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be laid before you, and have the fulleſt Confidence that in the Supply which ſuch a Situation ſhall appear to you to require, you will equally conſult the Safety of the Kingdom, and the Honor of His Majeſty's Government.

I am induced to hope that the great Increaſe of the Revenue which has taken place in the preſent Year may enable you to raiſe the Sums which may be wanted for the current Service without any diſtreſſing Addition to the Burthens of the People.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I recommend to your uſual Attention the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen-Manufacture, of Ireland; and I doubt not that the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, and thoſe public Inſtitutions, whether of Charity or Education, which have been protected by your Liberality, will ſtill receive a judicious Encouragement.

It will be for your Wiſdom to conſider how far it will be neceſſary to continue any of thoſe extraordinary Powers with which you have ſtrengthened the Authority of His Majeſty's Government, for the more effectual Suppreſſion and Puniſhment of rebellious Conſpiracy and Outrage.

His Majeſty places the moſt entire Reliance upon your Firmneſs and Wiſdom, and he has no Doubt that you will anxiouſly purſue ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be beſt calculated for bringing the preſent War to an honorable Termination, and for reſtoring the Country to permanent Tranquillity.

It will be my conſtant Object to attend to your Suggeſtions and Advice, that I may by this Means moſt beneficially accompliſh the Commands I have received from His Majeſty, and moſt effectually forward the Intereſts and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Dublin-Caſtle, January 18, 1800.

THE Houſes of Lords and Commons having reſolved upon humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty, the ſame were this Day preſented to the Lord Lieutenant for Tranſmiſſion; and alſo Addreſſes from both Houſes to His Excellency, which, with His Excellency's Anſwers, are as follow:

To His Excellency Charles Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant-General and General-Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks for your Excellency's Speech from the Throne.

The Continuation of your Excellency in the Government of this Kingdom is an additional Proof of His Majeſty's parental Attention to its Security and Proſperity, and, under the Protection of your Excellency's eminent Abilities, and the Moderation and Wiſdom of your Adminiſtration, we feel the utmoſt Confidence that the Safety of Ireland is enſured, and its Intereſts and Welfare protected and confirmed.

We beg Leave moſt cordially to congratulate your Excellency upon the gratifying and encouraging Reflections which preſent themſelves to our Conſideration, upon a Review of the important and glorious Events that have diſtinguiſhed the Period which has elapſed ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament.

When we contemplate the brilliant Courſe of Victories atchieved by the Combined Imperial Armies, by which the various Kingdoms and States of Italy have been delivered from the Ravages and the Tyranny of the French; the Reſtoration of the Throne of Naples, and of our friendly Connection with that Kingdom; the French Expedition to Egypt checked in its Career by the Exertion of the Turkiſh Arms, aſſiſted by a ſmall Detachment of His Majeſty's Forces, and the Gallantry of their heroic Commander; the hoſtile Plans of the common Enemy in India terminated in the total Deſtruction of the Power which had been miſled by their Artifices, and through the timely, vigorous, and deciſive Councils of the Marquis Welleſley, and the conſummate Skill and Valour of His Majeſty's Generals, Officers, and Troops, the Britiſh Poſſeſſions in that Quarter of the Globe beneficially extended and effectually ſecured, it is impoſſible not to expreſs our moſt lively Satisfaction at Events ſo glorious and ſo advantageous to the Intereſt of the Empire, and although the Seaſon, peculiarly unfavorable to Military Operations, produced the Neceſſity of relinquiſhing the Enterprize undertaken againſt Holland by His Majeſty's Forces and his Ruſſian Allies, ſo fortunately begun in the Reſcue of the Dutch Fleet from the Power of the Enemy, and prevented the complete Accompliſhment of His Majeſty's Views, yet we muſt conſider the Reſult of that Expedition as peculiarly beneficial to this Kingdom, in removing all Fear of Attack on our Coaſt from a Quarter whence it had been ſo often planned, and in enabling His Majeſty's Fleets to direct their Vigilance excluſively to the ſingle Port from which the Enemy can attack this Country with any Hope even of a temporary Succeſs.

We are fully ſenſible of the Care your Excellency has exerted to carry into Execution the extraordinary Powers committed to your Diſcretion with Vigour, and at the ſame Time with Moderation, and that, although the painful Neceſſity of acting with Severity has been often impoſed upon you, yet that you have never reſorted to that Severity but for the moſt ſalutary Purpoſes; and whilſt we lament with your Excellency that although public Tranquillity has been in a great Meaſure reſtored, a Diſpoſition to Outrage and Conſpiracy ſtill continues in ſeveral Diſtricts, and that much Induſtry is uſed to keep alive the Spirit of Diſaffection, and to encourage among the lower Claſſes the Hopes of French Aſſiſtance, we truſt at the ſame

Time that your Excellency's Perſeverance in the Line of Conduct you have adoped will finally extinguiſh ſuch Diſpoſitions, and completely reſtore internal Tranquillity.

The late Revolution in France cannot fail to open the Eyes of thoſe who have been deluded by the Artifices which have been unremittingly employed to withdraw them from their Allegiance; and it certainly muſt tend to reſtore and encreaſe the Love of Conſtitutional Order and of regulated Freedom, by demonſtrating that the Principles of falſe Liberty tend ultimately to Deſpotiſm, and that the criminal Struggles of Democratic Faction naturally cloſe in Military Uſurpation.

We feel moſt ſtrongly that ſo long as the French Government, under whatever Form it exerts its Influence, ſhall perſevere in Schemes of Deſtruction and Projects of Ambition, ſubverſive at once of the Liberties of Europe and of the Security of His Majeſty's Dominions, there can be no wiſe Alternative but to proſecute the War with encreaſing Energy, and that it is by great Exertions alone that either their Views of Aggrandizement can be fruſtrated or a ſolid Peace procured.

We beg Leave to expreſs, through your Excellency, the Gratitude we entertain for His Majeſty's parental Care, at the preſent Criſis, in availing himſelf of the cordial and great Aſſiſtance which has been afforded him by his faithful Ally the Emperor of Ruſſia, and in making every Exertion for augmenting the diſpoſeable Military Force of his own Dominions; and we truſt that the Confidence which His Majeſty feels that the Zeal and Loyalty of his Militia of this Kingdom will not be leſs prompt and conſpicuous than that of his Engliſh Militia, will be juſtified by their Offers of Service being equally general, to forward, at this important Conjuncture, the active Operations of the Empire.

Your Excellency's early Attention to the Apprehenſion of general Scarcity, which ſome Time ſince took place, by which you were induced, with the Advice of the Council, to offer Premiums for the early Importation of Grain, not only meets with our Approbation, but is entitled to our moſt grateful Acknowledgments; and your Excellency may be aſſured of our ready Concurrence and Cooperation, if it ſhall be neceſſary, to reſort to any farther extraordinary Means for procuring a Supply.

Your Excellency may rely upon our Attention to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, and that the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the public Inſtitutions, both of Charity and of Education, which we have hitherto protected, ſhall ſtill receive our Encouragement.

We ſhall not fail to take into Conſideration how far it may be neceſſary to continue thoſe extraordinary Powers with which we ſtrengthened the Authority of His Majeſty's Government for the more effectual Suppreſſion and Puniſhment of rebellious Conſpiracy and Outrage.

His Majeſty may place the moſt entire Reliance upon our firm and cordial Co operation and Support, and we think it our Duty anxiouſly to purſue ſuch Meaſures as may be beſt calculated for bringing the preſent War to an honorable Termination, and for reſtoring the Country to permanent Tranquillity.

The Zeal your Excellency has invariably diſplayed in ſecuring the Safety and reſtoring the Tranquillity of this Kingdom, and the Attention you have paid to its Welfare and Proſperity, are Pledges to us of your Continuance in the ſame ſalutary Exertions, and your Excellency may fully rely on our hearty Co-operation in ſuch Meaſures as may moſt beneficially accompliſh the gracious Wiſhes of His Majeſty, and moſt effectually forward the Intereſts and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

John Gayer, D. Cler. Parl.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer:

My Lords,

I Return you my warmeſt and moſt grateful Thanks for this Addreſs, which, in the Declarations it contains reſpecting His Majeſty's Government, is ſo honorable to your Lordſhips, and in its Expreſſions which relate to my Conduct, is ſo flattering to my private Feelings.

His Majeſty will receive with the higheſt Satisfaction thoſe loyal and determined Sentiments which you have manifeſted at a Conjuncture ſo critical and important; and he cannot fail to avail himſelf ſucceſsfully of that unanimous Support which you have promiſed to thoſe Meaſures which may be neceſſary to bring the preſent Conteſt to an honorable Iſſue, and to ſecure the Tranquillity of Ireland.

Animated by your Approbation, and aſſured of your cordial Aſſiſtance, I feel myſelf encouraged to perſevere with Steadineſs in the Line of Conduct I have adopted; and you may depend upon my zealous Attention to your Intereſts, and my faithful Repreſentation of your Services.

To His Excellency Charles Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant-General and General-Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

In the Continuance of your Excellency as our Chief Governor, we have experienced a new and affecting Inſtance of His Majeſty's Solicitude for the Welfare, and of his Condeſcenſion to the Wiſhes of his faithful People of Ireland; and we entreat your Excellency to believe, that we eſteem it a ſignal Happineſs to this Country to be placed, in the preſent Criſis, under the wiſe, firm, vigilant, and impartial Councils of a Nobleman whoſe Adminiſtration has ſo eminently conduced to the Benefit and Security of the Kingdom committed to his Care.

The important and glorious Events which have diſtinguiſhed the Interval that has elapſed ſince the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, affords us the moſt genuine and heartfelt Pleaſure.

We have ſeen, with the higheſt Gratification, that by the ſplendid Series of Victories atchieved

G.P.C.DI THRE HALFPE HALFPEN HALFPEN

by the Combined Imperial Armies, the various Kingdoms and States of Italy have been reſcued from the predatory Tyranny of French Power.

Among the fortunate Effects of thoſe Exertions, it is a Subject of much Joy to us to obſerve the Reſtoration of the Throne of Naples to its lawful Poſſeſſor, and the Renewal of our former friendly Intercourſe with that Kingdom.

We have derived the moſt ſincere Satisfaction from the ſignal Check which the French Expedition to Egypt has ſuſtained from the Exertions of Turkiſh Arms, animated by the gallant Co-operation of a ſmall Detachment of His Majeſty's Forces under the Direction of a Commander, whoſe Skill and Heroiſm entitle him to our warmeſt Applauſe and Admiration.

It is a Source of juſt Pride and Exultation to us that the hoſtile Projects of the common Enemy in India have terminated in the entire Deſtruction of the Power which their Artifices had deluded into the Support of their ambitious Schemes; and that the timely, vigorous, and deciſive Councils of the Marquis Welleſley, aided by the tried Abilities and Intrepidity of His Majeſty's Generals, Officers, and Troops, have both beneficially enlarged the Britiſh Poſſeſſions in that Quarter of the Globe, and placed them in a State of ſolid and permanent Security.

We are truly ſenſible to the important Advantage which has accrued from the Deſcent of His Majeſty's Forces and his Ruſſian Allies on the Coaſt of Holland, by the Reſcue of the Dutch Fleet from the Power of the Enemy; and although the Seaſon proved ſo peculiarly unfavourable for Military Operations, as to render it impracticable to perſiſt in an Enterprize ſo fortunately commenced, and thus prevented the entire Accompliſhment of His Majeſty's Views, yet the Reſult of the Expedition has been productive of the moſt beneficial Effects to this Kingdom, by removing all Fear of an Attack on our Coaſts from a Quarter whence it had been ſo often planned, and by enabling His Majeſty's Fleets to direct their undivided Attention to the only Port from which the Enemy can make any Attempt on this Country with any Hope even of a temporary Succeſs.

We are truly ſenſible of the Benefits which have reſulted from the judicious and ſalutary Exerciſe of the extraordinary Powers that were committed by Parliament to your Excellency's Diſcretion. Though we ſympathize with your Excellency in regretting the Neceſſity which has exiſted for frequent Exertions of Severity, we are convinced that under the patient, humane, and ſcrupulous Attention with which your Excellency has adminiſtered that important Truſt, no Act of Rigour has been adopted which Juſtice did not require, and which was not indiſpenſable for the Order and Safety of the State; at the ſame Time it is a Subject of the moſt unfeigned Concern to us, that a Tendency to Outrage ſhould ſtill continue in ſeveral Diſtricts, and that Means ſhould be induſtriouſly employed for keeping alive the Spirit of Diſaffection, and cheriſhing the Hope of French Co-operation. We ſincerely participate in the Hope which your Excellency has ſo forcibly expreſſed, that the recent Revolution in France will open the Eyes of thoſe who have been deluded by the Artifices which have been unremittingly employed to withdraw them from their Allegiance; it cannot, we truſt, fail to reſtore and cheriſh the Love of Conſtitutional Order, and of a genuine and well-regulated Freedom, by demonſtrating that the Principles of a falſe and ſpurious Liberty lead only to Deſpotiſm and an ignominious Servitude; and that Military Uſurpation is the natural Termination to the criminal Efforts of Democratic Faction.

Moſt ſtrongly do we feel that ſo long as the French Government, whatever Shape it may aſſume, ſhall perſevere in Schemes of Deſtruction and Projects of Ambition, no leſs ſubverſive of the Liberties of Europe than menacing to the Security of His Majeſty's Dominions, there can be no wiſe or ſafe Alternative but to increaſe our Efforts in the Proſecution of the War, engaged as we are in a Conteſt which, by involving the deareſt and moſt valuable Intereſts of ſocial Life, calls for all our Conſtancy, and an unuſual Share of public Spirit. we are thoroughly convinced, that it is by great Exertion alone that thoſe Views of Aggrandiſement can be fruſtrated, or a ſolid Peace procured.

We have ſeen with peculiar Satisfaction that His Majeſty hath availed himſelf of the cordial and great Aſſiſtance which he has received from his faithful Ally the Emperor of Ruſſia; and we gratefully acknowledge the wiſe and prudent Exertions which His Majeſty has adopted for augmenting the diſpoſeable Military Force of his Dominions. The generous Co-operation given to His Majeſty's Views on that Occaſion by the Engliſh Militia has afforded an animating Example of Patriotiſm to all Parts of the Empire; and we are convinced that the Militia of this Kingdom will be anxious to prove that they deſerve the Confidence His Majeſty is pleaſed to repoſe in their Zeal and Loyalty, by diſplaying an equal Ardour for promoting His Majeſty's Service, and forwarding, at this important Criſis, the active Operations of the Empire. Impreſſed with a full Perſuaſion of the beneficial Conſequences likely to be derived from the ſpeedy Accompliſhment of this great and ſalutary Object, we ſhall not fail moſt cheerfully to concur in the Meaſures which ſhall appear beſt adapted for its Attainment.

The early Precautions which were adopted by your Excellency in Conſequence of the Apprehenſions that were ſome Time ſince of a general Scarcity, demands our grateful Acknowledgments; and your Excellency may rely on our ready Concurrence in giving a Parliamentary Sanction to the judicious and beneficial Meaſures which your Excellency has purſued by the Advice of the Council.

We are deeply impreſſed with the Wiſdom and Policy of continuing that enlarged Syſtem of Defence, the Benefit of which has been experienced, and which is calculated to protect the Country from every Danger, whether Foreign or Domeſtic, and to render the Succeſs of Invaſion, if attempted, impracticable.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered the Public Accounts and Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be laid before us. Our Zeal for His Majeſty's Service, and the Security of the Kingdom, prompt us in a peculiar Manner to make a Proviſion adequate to the Exigencies of the Conjuncture; and it affords us infinite Satisfaction to learn that the improved State of the Revenue in the preſent Year will much facilitate our Endeavours for this Purpoſe, and is likely to enable us to raiſe the neceſſary Supplies without any diſtreſſing Addition to the Burthens of the People.

We entertain a ſtrong Senſe of your Excellency's Anxiety for promoting the true Intereſts of this Kingdom, in directing our Attention to its Agriculture, its Manufactures, and particularly to its Linen-Manufacture, as well as to the Proteſtant Charter-Schools and the other public Inſtitutions, whether of Charity or Education, which have uſually received the Bounty of Parliament. Your Excellency may be aſſured that thoſe important Objects of National Proſperity ſhall not fail to engage our accuſtomed Regard and Liberality.

Your Excellency may rely on our taking into our early Conſideration the Expediency of continuing any of thoſe extraordinary Powers by which the Executive Government has been ſtrengthened, for the more effectual Repreſſion and Puniſhment of Rebellious Conſpiracy and Outrage.

We cannot with ſufficient Gratitude expreſs our Acknowledgments for His Majeſty's gracious reliance on our Firmneſs and Zeal in maintaining the great Cauſe in which we are engaged; and we beſeech your Excellency to aſſure his Majeſty of our unſhaken Attachment to His Perſon, Family, and Government, and of our unalterable Reſolution to purſue ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be beſt calculated for inſuring a ſafe and honorable Concluſion of the preſent War, and for re-eſtabliſhing in the Country permanent Tranquillity.

Of your Excelleney's unwearied Endeavours for promoting the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom we have experienced the moſt ſubſtantial Proofs; and grateful for the Advantages we enjoy under your Adminiſtration, we are prompted no leſs by Zeal than Duty to employ our moſt ſedulous Exertions for the Advancement of His Majeſty's Service, and for the Eaſe and Honor of your Excellency's Government.

G. F. Hill, Cler. Dom. Com.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer:

Gentlemen,

YOUR kind and flattering Addreſs calls for my moſt affectionate Acknowledgments. But if I am ſenſibly penetrated with the warm Declarations you have made in Favor of my Conduct, I am ſtill more deeply impreſſed by the Sentiments you have manifeſted in Support of His Majeſty's Government.

Your Determination to co-operate with His Majeſty in bringing the arduous Conteſt in which he is engaged to an honorable Termination, your ready Diſpoſition to grant every neceſſary Supply, to increaſe the diſpoſeable Force of the Empire, and to counteract any Project which can be entertained by our Foreign or Domeſtic Enemies for endangering the Tranquillity of this Kingdom, will give new Confidence to His Majeſty's Counſels, and increaſe the Aſſurance he muſt feel of eſtabliſhing and ſecuring the Proſperity of his Kingdoms.

From this freſh Teſtimony of your Confidence and Approbation, my Solicitude to procure the Happineſs of Ireland is, if poſſible, augmented, to which I am equally prompted by the Exhortations of Duty and the Feelings of Gratitude.
